“52. In relation to electronic and paper publications, including searchable databases, the completeness and correctness of the information is of particular importance. In particular, it is important to include information concerning applications for and grants of breeders’ rights, and proposed and approved denominations.”

“62. The UPOV Convention provides for a right of priority of 12 months, based upon an earlier application for the protection of the same variety with another UPOV member, whereby, when priority is claimed, a subsequent application is treated as if it were filed on the filing date of the first application. The right of priority has effects for the examination of the novelty and distinctness conditions and proposed denominations (see online distance learning course DL-205 “Plant Breeders’ Rights under the UPOV Convention”, Module 4: “Applying for a Plant Breeder’s Right”, and document UPOV/EXN/PRI “Explanatory notes on the right of priority under the UPOV Convention” available at: http://www.upov.int/explanatory\_notes/en/.”

The Consultative Committee concluded that more time was needed to discuss the issues raised by a possible international system of cooperation and agreed that the matter should be considered further at its ninetieth session. (iii) the Office of the Union would seek to develop a brief, illustrative explanation of the benefits of the UPOV system aimed at an audience with no previous knowledge of plant breeding or plant variety protection and/or illustrative examples of the benefits of plant variety protection, in 2015 or 2016;

(iv) a report on the use of e-workshops would be made to the Consultative Committee at its ninetieth session and to the Council at its forty-ninth ordinary session;

(v) the introduction of a UPOV channel on YouTube would be arranged after the introduction of a new UPOV logo;

36. The Consultative Committee recommended to the Council to revise the answer to the FAQ "Can I obtain protection for more than one country from a single application?", as follows:

"In order to obtain protection the breeder needs to file an application with the authority of each UPOV member where protection is sought. The European Union operates a ~~(supranational) community~~ plant variety breeders' rights system which covers the territory of its 28 member States. The African Intellectual Property Organization operates a plant breeders' rights system which covers the territory of its 17 member States. Contact details of the authorities responsible for the granting of breeders' rights are provided at http://www.upov.int/members/en/pvp\_offices.html."
